A CONFERENCE IN HONOR OF MICHAEL GROSSBERG

AMERICAN SOCIETY FOR LEGAL HISTORY PRE-CONFERENCE
NOVEMBER 10, 2022
AT NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY, PRITZKER SCHOOL OF LAW & THE AMERICAN BAR FOUNDATION

Register for Pre-Conference by October 1, 2022 at https://bit.ly/3NEQFK9

Sponsored by
American Bar Foundation
Indiana University, Maurer School of Law
Northwestern University, Pritzker School of Law
Princeton University, Department of History
University of Minnesota, Department of History

9:30am “Saving Our Kids”
Opening Remarks by Laura Edwards & Dirk Hartog

10-11:30am “Who Gets the Child?”
Comment by Steven Mintz
- Chelsea Chamberlain, “Perpetual Children”: Mental Disability, Institutional Commitment, and the Intimate State
- Naama Maor, “We Cannot be Hoodwinked into Making Paroles”: Delinquent Children, State Institutions, and the Boundaries of Juvenile Justice
- Kristen McCabe Lashua, “if the boy’s word is to be taken”: Child Testimonies in Early Modern England
- Nathan Stenberg, “A Peculiar Case”: Disability, Performance, and the Legal (De)Construction of Institutionalized Children’s Personhood at the Pennhurst State School & Hospital

11:45-12:30 Break (Lunch Provided for Panel Participants Only)

12:45-2:15pm “A Protected Childhood”
Comment by Barbara Welke
- Wangui Muigai, The Tenth Crusade: Baby-Saving, Racial Violence, and the NAACP
- Yukako Otori, Esther Kaplan’s Saga: From an Undesirable Immigrant to an Undeportable “Child”
- Ivón Padilla-Rodríguez, The Double Removal of Migrant Youth: Late-Twentieth Century Data Collection and Education Law as U.S. Immigration Deterrence
- Shani Roper, Sitting at Intersections: Institutionalized Children and the Law in Colonial Jamaica 1904 to 1950
- Doris Morgan Rueda, “The Boy is Large for His Age”: Making Age in Arizona’s Early Juvenile Court, 1907-1920

2:30-4pm “Legal Rights for Children?”
Comment by David Tanenhaus
- Tera Agyepong, Constructing Race and Gendered Delinquency in the Juvenile Justice System
- Emily Prifogle, Rural Students and a “Right” to Local Schools
- Kathryn Schumaker, Desegregating Discipline: Corporal Punishment and Children’s Rights in the Classroom in the 1970s

4:15pm Afterward
Introduction of Michael Grossberg by Ajay Mehrotra & Bengt Sandin
Closing Remarks by Michael Grossberg

5pm Cocktail Reception
To be held at the American Bar Foundation, Room TBA